" Studio Master FLAC & ALAC downloads available Download all MP3 The Concerto for two pianos in D minor, composed in the summer of 1932, ranks alongside the Concerto for organ, strings, and timpani (1938) as Poulenc's finest works in the arena of orchestral music.

"This programme has some of Poulenc's most enjoyable music, performed in the safe and sensitive hands of Louis Lortie and with the excellent Edward Gardner at the helm of one of the UK's finest orchestras After being treated to these three wonderful orchestral works we have the added gift of the intense Sonata for piano duet played with terrific zing and magnificently poetic depth by Lortier/Mercier This Chandos recording is admirably balanced if I had to take away just one Poulenc programme then CHAN 10875 would be my current first choice..
